Mrs. Kate Waite left here on Monday for Waterloo, N. Y., where she expects to make her future home with an aunt. Mrs. W. is a very estimable lady and has a large circle of friends in this village.

Dr. Robinson was in town a few days last week looking after his interests in the Pee-Pee-Yah farm, which they have been surveying with a view of dividing it among the heirs of the late John R. Baker.

Ile Conner, one day last week, sold a Durham heifer four years old which weighed 1,555 lbs., and brought the snug sum of $77.75. She was from the stock of cattle brought here from Ohio by Edson Woodman. It don't pay to raise good cattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Eber Rowland, of Hartford are visiting their son, O. W.

Did you see the brilliant display of northern lights last Sunday night?

H. H. Dean, of Kalamazoo, has obtained a patent on a cord-tyer for grain-binders.

Lawyers Annable and Orano have hoisted it up to Lansing to the supreme court this week.

Officer Filley picked up John Harley, and Justice Mason fined him $10 and costs for being drunk.

James Sellick sobered off in the cooler after a three days drunk, and paid $5 and costs for his fun.

Our genial friend, C. J. Monroe of South Haven, was in town on Tuesday last. Always glad to meet you, Charley.

The Rev. Mr. Goodman will preach at the Free Baptist church next Sabbath morning, but will hold service at the First Baptist church in the evening.

Prof. O. Dunham made a flying visit to our town on Tuesday and Wednesday last. He has lots of friends here who were glad to give him a friendly "shake."

A word to those young men who were looking around the School House the other evening for the northern lights. Just 48 hours late boys. Good e-v-e.

H. A. Rogers is in town attending Johnson's auction at the Dyckman House. He must be intending to start a second-hand store, open a hotel, go a peddling or something of that kind.

Brownsville, Saline Co., Mo., was visited by a cyclone on Tuesday, which lasted only two minutes, by which twenty buildings were destroyed, seven persons killed and twenty or thirty more injured.

A number of the friends here of William Bauche, were the recipients of a fine, fresh shad from their last Sunday's dinner, sent them by him from New York City. They were very nice, William, very nice.

On account of the absence of the Musical Director, the Amateurs will meet on Wednesday evening next, instead of Monday, at the residence of Mrs. F. G. Hudson.

MAY BLOWERS, Sec'y.

George W. Matthews has been appointed local agent by the Express Company, in order to have an express office up town, and give to our citizens the benefit of the low rates the company has recently established on small amounts of money.

We are in receipt of a pretty song and chorus, entitled "Betty and the Baby." Those who are interested in the fate of Sergt. Mason and his family, will desire to possess the song. Price 35 cents. Published by S. Brainard's Sons, Cleveland, O.

At the last meeting of Brodhead Post No. 31, G. A. R., five new recruits were mustered and eight new applications received. The Post now numbers fifty-four members and has twenty applications outstanding. Their next meeting will be held at their Post room on Thursday evening, April 27th.

It is claimed by our fruit raisers that the recent cold weather has killed all the early varieties of cherries, but the peach buds are yet unharmed. Mr. L. Martin near Lawton has about 700 Early Richmond cherry trees, which a month ago gave promise of an abundant harvest, but now his crop will be a failure.

For three days in succession of last week there were more fellows "up in a balloon" in this village, than we have ever witnessed before, unless it was the occasion of a fair or circus, or something of the kind that called a large number of men to town. The new village temperance administration appears to be a brilliant success.

The Bloomingdale flouring mill has been lately purchased by C. B. Smith. The people of Bloomingdale are fortunate in the change in the management of this mill. Mr. Smith is a thorough business man, and has engaged a miller with a large experience in the business. The mill is a new one and can be made to do first class work. Mr. Smith tells you what he proposes to do elsewhere in this paper.

The narrow gauge train ran over and killed one of Sarah Gage's cows at Lawrence one day this week.

Ed. Hayes was pulled by H. W. McCabe on Wednesday for being drunk, and was fined $14.75 or fifteen days in jail.

Married, at the residence of Chas. Voke, in Marshall, on Saturday last, Mr. L. S. Burdick, to Mrs. Geo. Voke. The bridal pair have been spending a few days with their friends here. Mr. Burdick is a well-to-do farmer of Texas, Kalamazoo County, and is highly respected.

If that party who borrowed Jos. Kilburn's umbrellas and overshoes from his porch on Monday last, shall return the same, he will be allowed to escape punishment. He is well known and the taking was not as secret as he thought. If he don't take this hint he need not be surprised to find himself in the cooler.

L. W. & D. Osborn are getting nicely located in their new quarters at the old furniture store of M. P. Allen. They have added to the Allen stock of furniture that which was contained in the Lucas building, making their stock very large and complete. They are honorable men and worthy of the public patronage.

The people at Bangor commenced surveying a route for the Narrow Gauge from Lawrence to Bangor, on Tuesday. The road, if built that way, will run from Lawrence to just east of the old fair ground, and thence in a north-westerly direction through Arlington, entering Bangor village on the furnace grounds.

Among the list of teachers who received certificates at the examination held in this village, as published in last week's Non-THENER, there should be added the name of Miss Etta Hathaway by some means omitted. The friends of Miss Hathaway will be pleased to learn that she obtained a certificate, and is engaged in teaching the school in the Lyle district.

The 62d anniversary of American Odd Fellowship will be celebrated at Decatur, Mich., on Wednesday, April 26. Hon. E. G. D. Holden, of Grand Rapids, will deliver the address, and to those who are acquainted with him we need not say that it will be a good one. Mr. Holden never makes poor speeches. No pains has been spared by the Odd Fellows of Decatur to make the occasion a success.

To the list of successful applicants for certificates, as published in last week's Non-THENER, there should be added the name of Miss Isidore Harrison of this village. Miss Harrison teaches in what is commonly known as the Tuttle district in this township, near White Oak. She began her labors last Monday. Miss H. is a well educated, accomplished lady, and we think her patrons are fortunate in having secured her services.

C. S. Hoskins, who lives on Chandler Richards farm near Lawrence, claims to be the owner of some educated steers. He says that while they were at play the other day, they took his heavy, wide tire wagon out from under the shed, turned it around, backed it some eight rods and then hung it on top of a high board fence to advertise the wide tire business of Garvin & Nichols of Paw Paw, of whom he had just purchased it. Mr. H. is a reliable man and reads the Non-THENER.
